

MILITARY ORDER OF THE CARABAO
Membership Qualifications

Membership may be extended by the Membership Committee to commissioned officers or former officers of any of the armed forces who have served either as an officer or as an enlisted man, under one of the following classifications. (An enlisted man becomes eligible only after receiving his commission as an officer.)

- Veteran Carabao: Those who served in the Philippine Islands between May 1, 1898, and July 4, 1913, or between December 6, 1941, and July 4, 1946.
- Amphibious Carabao: Those who served west of the International Date Line where such service was incident to the liberation of the Philippines - World War II, December 6, 1941 to July 4, 1946.
- Companero Carabao: Those who served in the Philippine Islands between July 4, 1913 and December 6, 1941, or subsequent to July 4, 1946.
- Expedicionario Carabao: Those who have served overseas in support of an officially identified military campaign, e.g., Operation Desert Storm, etc.
- Associate Carabao: Includes accredited war correspondents, serving with any of the forces engaged in liberating the Philippines. This membership may by action of the Executive Committee be conferred upon any person who has rendered distinguished and valuable service to the Order or to the Nation.
- Tenero Carabao: The Order is an hereditary one. Eligibility is extended to descendants, over twenty-one years of age, regardless of military service, of any member, or a person who is, or was, eligible to be a member.
- Honorary Carabao: Conferred by the Main Corral upon the President of the United States and the Ambassador to the United States from the Republic of the Philippines.

Application for membership must be completed in detail by the applicant and by the sponsors.

The initiation fee is $50.00. The new member will receive a Carabao Insignia, a Carabao Tie, a Lapel Pin, Membership Certificate inscribed with the Member's Name and Membership Number signed by the Grand Paramount Carabao, and a copy of the current Carabao History. The annual dues are $50.00, payable with the initiation fee, for a total of $100.00.
